Title : Word 2002 Core

Ver : 11-06-06

QUESTION 1:

Select the correct menu bar sequence to insert a new table into a Word document.

- A. Insert, Table, Insert
- B. Format, Table, Insert
- C. Tools, Insert, Table
- D. Table, Insert, Table

Answer: D

Explanation: Tables are inserted into a document by selecting Table, Insert, Table on the menu bar. Specify the number of columns and rows in the Insert Table dialog box, and click OK. Tables can also be inserted by selecting the Insert Table button on the Standard toolbar.

QUESTION 2:

What is the default page number location when inserting page numbering using the Page Numbers dialog box?

- A. Bottom, Left
- B. Top, Left
- C. Top, Right
- D. Bottom Right

Answer: D

Explanation: Page numbering can be inserted into a document by selecting Insert, Page Numbers on the menu bar. When the Page Numbers dialog box displays, the default location and alignment are Bottom, Right.

QUESTION 3:

Page orientation is set from this tab in the Page Setup dialog box.

- A. Margins
- B. Paper
- C. Layout
- D. Page

Answer: A

Explanation: Portrait and Landscape are the two page orientations that can be applied to a word document, and are set from the Margins tab in the Page Setup dialog box.

QUESTION 4:

Heading 1, Heading 3, and Normal are examples of _____.

- A. Properties
- B. Styles
- C. Characteristics
- D. Attributes

Answer: B

Explanation: To create, apply, or modify a style, select Format, Styles and Formatting on the menu bar. When the task pane displays, select the desired style from the list window or select the New Style button to create a new style. When a style is applied to text headings in a document, any changes made to the style will reflect throughout the document.

QUESTION 5:

You are spell checking a document and the spell checker stops at a correctly spelled word. What option can you select in the Spelling and Grammar dialog box so the spell checker places the word in the dictionary?

- A. Place in dictionary
- B. Add to dictionary
- C. Place
- D. Add

Answer: B

Explanation: Selecting the Add to Dictionary button adds the word to the dictionary so future occurrences of the word will not be picked up unless it is misspelled. Add is a good guess but this was used in previous versions of Word.

QUESTION 6:

Which is NOT a type of indenting that is supported in Word? Select all that apply.

- A. Last Line
- B. Hanging
- C. Right
- D. Suspending

Answer: A, D

Explanation: Last Line and Suspending indents don't exist. First Line and Hanging are special indents. Indenting can be applied from the Formatting toolbar or by clicking Format, Paragraph on the menu bar. The indent markers on the ruler can also be used to set indents.

QUESTION 7:

Select the correct menu bar sequence to save a document as a web page.

- A. File, Save as Web Page
- B. File, Save Web Page
- C. Save, As Web Page
- D. File, Save, Web, Page

Answer: A

Explanation: Selecting File, Save as Web Page saves the document in HTML format so it can be published to the Internet.

QUESTION 8:

- A. Fragment
- B. Partition
- C. Section
- D. Sector

Answer: C

Explanation: Section breaks are used to divide a document so different headers and footers can be used throughout the sections. To insert a section break at the insertion point location, select Insert, Break on the menu bar.

QUESTION 9:

Tia creates an Organizational Chart diagram on her document. The chart will consist of managers and assistant managers. What shape will she use to represent the assistant managers in relation to the managers?

- A. Co-Worker
- B. Assistant
- C. Subordinate
- D. Co-Assistant

Answer: C

Explanation: An organizational chart is a hierarchical structure which represents relationships between objects in an organization. Shapes (boxes) directly below other shapes are subordinate shapes. Assistant managers are subordinate to managers. Charts and diagrams are created by selecting Insert, Diagram on the menu bar.

QUESTION 10:

Which methods below can be used to apply newspaper columns to a document? Select all that apply.

- A. Insert, Columns on the menu bar
- B. Format, Columns on the menu bar
- C. Tools, Columns on the menu bar
- D. Columns button on the toolbar

Answer: B, D

- A. Format, Paragraph, Shading
- B. Paragraph, Borders and Shading
- C. Tools, Borders and Shading
- D. Format, Borders and Shading

Answer: D

Explanation: Shade a paragraph by selecting Format, Borders and Shading on the menu bar, and selecting the Shading tab.

QUESTION 12:

Which choice below is NOT a font style?

- A. Color
- B. Underline
- C. Bold
- D. Italic

Answer: A

Explanation: The four font styles are bold, italic, bold-italic, and underline. Font styles can be applied either from the Formatting toolbar or by clicking Format, Font on the menu bar.

QUESTION 13:

Pick the correct menu bar sequence so gridlines do not show when a table is created.

- A. Table, Hide Gridlines
- B. Format, Hide Gridlines
- C. Hide Gridlines, Table
- D. Table, Gridlines

Answer: A

Explanation: Don't confuse gridlines with borders. This is a common mistake. Hide gridlines by selecting Table, Hide Gridlines on the menu bar

QUESTION 14:

Josh is working on his document which contains a five row table. The cell cursor is in row 3 of the table. What menu bar sequence can he use to insert a row between rows 2 and 3?

- A. Insert, Table, Rows Above
- B. Table, Insert, Rows Below
- C. Table, Insert, Rows Above
- D. Insert, Row, Above

Answer: C

Explanation: When inserting rows, it is important to know the location of the cursor. Knowing where the cursor is determines what option you should select from the Table, Insert menu bar sequence. Insert Rows Above or Below is relative to location of the cursor location within the table.

- A. Ctrl-TAB
- B. TAB
- C. Alt-TAB
- D. Shift-TAB

Answer: D

Explanation: To go down levels in an outline, the TAB key is used. To go up outline levels, perform a SHIFT-TAB. To create an outline, click Format, Bullets and Numbering on the menu bar, and select the desired bulleted or numbered characters

QUESTION 17:

Pick the TRUE statements in reference to Print Previewing a document. Select all that apply.

- A. Turn it on from the File menu
- B. Multiple pages can be previewed
- C. Edit while in Print Preview mode
- D. You can't preview a blank document

Answer: A, B, C

Explanation: D is the only false answer. Although you may never do it, a blank document can be previewed. Preview a document by clicking File, Print Preview on the menu bar. Multiple pages can be previewed by selecting the Multiple Pages button from the Print Preview toolbar. A document can be edited in Print Preview by clicking the Magnifier button on the Print Preview toolbar.

QUESTION 18:

- A. Match Case
- B. Use Wildcards
- C. Sounds Like
- D. Looks Like

Answer: A, B, C

Explanation: Looks Like is not an option. Other options include Find Whole Words Only and Find All Word Forms.

QUESTION 19:

Under what situation would you use Save As instead of Save? Select all that apply.

- A. Save to different location
- B. Saving for the first time
- C. Save file with same name
- D. Save in a different file format

Answer: A, B, D

Explanation: D is the only answer that doesn't require the Save As dialog box. Saving in a different file format such as Word 6.0 requires you do use the Save As dialog box as does a first time save and saving to a different location such as a floppy disk.

QUESTION 20:

Pick TWO options that would cause the Save As dialog box to appear on a document that has already been saved once. Select TWO answers.

- A. File, Save on the menu bar
- B. F12 key
- C. Tools, Save As on the menu bar
- D. File, Save As on the menu bar

Answer: B, D

Explanation: The Tools menu has no Save option. The F12 key is a less familiar method of calling up the Save As dialog box.

QUESTION 21:

When inserting a date field into a Word document, what check box must be checked in the Date and Time dialog box so the date and time changes automatically?

- A. Update Automatically
- B. Update
- C. Change
- D. Change Automatically

Answer: A

Explanation: Placing a check mark in the Update Automatically check box when in the Date and Time dialog box will cause the date and time to update automatically. Select Insert, Date and Time on the menu bar to insert a date and time field.

QUESTION 22:

Which is NOT a line spacing option when formatting a paragraph from the Paragraph dialog box?

- A. 1.5 Lines
- B. Single
- C. At most
- D. Double

Answer: C

Explanation: A, B, and D are all line spacing options. There is no At Most option. There is, however, an At Least line spacing option. Set line spacing by selecting Format, Paragraph on the menu bar or by selecting the Line Spacing button on the Formatting toolbar.

QUESTION 23:

QUESTION 25:

Assuming the Formatting toolbar has not been altered from its default setting, which buttons are NOT on the toolbar. Select all that apply.

- A. UNDO
- B. Increase/Decrease Indent
- C. Small Caps
- D. Highlight

Answer: A, C

Explanation: UNDO is on the Standard toolbar not Formatting. The small caps text effect is most often applied from the Effects section of the Font dialog box.

QUESTION 26:

Pick all methods to start the spell checker. Select all that apply.

- A. F7
- B. Formatting toolbar button
- C. Tools, Spelling and Grammar
- D. Standard toolbar button

Answer: A, C, D

Explanation: There are three primary ways to start the spell checker: F7 on the keyboard, Tools, Spelling and Grammar on the menu bar, and selecting the Spelling and Grammar button on the Standard toolbar. Words not recognized by the spell checker are identified by a red, wavy line beneath the word.

QUESTION 27:

The font size of a character uses what unit of measure?

- A. Points
- B. Pixels
- C. Millimeters
- D. Inches

Answer: A

Explanation: Fonts are measured in points. One point equals 1/72nd of an inch. Hence: A font size of 72 would print one inch on the page. Font size can be changed from the Font Size dropdown list on the Formatting toolbar.

QUESTION 28:

What would you key into the Pages field of the Print dialog box if you only want pages 1 through 10 and page 18 to print?

- A. 1,10,18
- B. 1-10,18
- C. 1-18
- D. 1-10-18

Answer: B

Explanation: When printing separate or grouped pages, dashes indicate "through" and commas represent individual pages. Select File, Print on the menu bar or perform a Ctrl+P on the keyboard to call up the Print dialog box.

QUESTION 29:

Pick all illegal document filenames. Select all that apply.

- A. MyDocument.doc
- B. My*Document.doc
- C. MyDocument.dco
- D. My?Document.doc

Answer: B, D

Explanation: Be careful!! Although C looks incorrect, you can use any file extension you want. If a filename extension is different than DOC, Word will actually add DOC at the end. In answer C, Word would make it MyDocument.dco.doc which is still a legal but awkward looking filename. Asterisks and question marks are wildcard characters and cannot be used in a document filename.

QUESTION 30:

Mia's paragraph is aligned evenly on both left and right sides of the paragraph. What type of justification is applied to Mia's paragraph?

- A. Right
- B. Full
- C. Left
- D. Justify

Answer: D

Explanation: Paragraph alignment where both sides are even is called justify. Newspapers and magazine articles typically use this type of justification. Setting paragraph alignment is most commonly done from the Formatting toolbar.

QUESTION 31:

word automatically corrects the spelling. What Word feature is working?

- A. AutoComplete
- B. AutoFix
- C. AutoSpell
- D. AutoCorrect

Answer: D

QUESTION 32:

Previewing a document as it will appear on the Internet uses which view.

- A. Web Page Preview
- B. View Web Page
- C. Web Page View
- D. age View

Answer: A

Explanation: Selecting File, Web Page Preview on the File menu displays the document in the Internet Explorer web browser.

QUESTION 33:

Samantha has replaced the word Manager with the word Leader throughout her document using the Find and Replace feature. Upon inspection, she realizes that totally unrelated words like leadership have also been updated when they shouldn't have been. What option should Samantha have used when in the Find and Replace dialog box that would have avoided this situation?

- A. Use Wildcards
- B. Find All Word Forms
- C. Find Whole Words Only
- D. Match Case

Answer: C

Explanation: Although all answers are options in the dialog box, Find Whole Words Only is the correct answer. Selecting this option ensures that only the whole word is searched for and not parts of larger words like leadership. Select Edit, Replace on the menu bar to call up the Find and Replace dialog box.

- A. 1
- B. i
- C. I
- D. A

Answer: A

Explanation: By default, page numbers are Arabic. Page number formats can be changed by selecting View, Header and Footer on the menu bar and selecting the Format Page Number button on the Header and Footer toolbar.

QUESTION 74:

Thomas has a six-page report with headings at every paragraph. What is the most efficient way he can format and reformat his headings without having to format each individual heading every time?

- A. Don't use headings
- B. Apply a style to the headings
- C. Use the format painter
- D. Change the format manually

Answer: B

Explanation: Although the format painter would be fairly quick, applying styles is the best answer because if Thomas modifies the style, the style formatting will automatically update throughout the headings. Styles are created and applied by selecting Format, Style on the menu bar and selecting the desired style from the task pane.

QUESTION 75:

Which option is selected from the New Document task pane to view and select document templates without using the Internet?

- A. All Templates
- B. General Templates
- C. Template Sets
- D. Standard Templates

Answer: B

Explanation: Selecting File, New on the menu bar, causes the task pane to display. Clicking the General Templates option in the task pane displays the Templates dialog box where you can select letter, memo, and fax templates.

QUESTION 76:

Assuming that all initial default settings are in place, what is the default tab stop in a new blank document?

- A. No tabs are set
- B. Every Half Inch
- C. Every Quarter Inch
- D. Every Inch

Answer: B

Explanation:
Although they don't appear on the ruler, there are tabs every half-inch in a blank document. Once a tab is set either from the Ruler or Tabs dialog box, all default tabs are cleared. The default tab stops can be changed from the Default tab stops field in the Tabs dialog box.

QUESTION 77:

Which button is selected on the Headers and Footers toolbar to change existing page numbers to roman numerals?

- A. Format Page Number
- B. Page Number Format

- C. Page Number Properties
- D. Number Format

Answer: B

Explanation: Clicking the Page Number Format button on the Headers and Footers toolbar allows you to change how your page numbering looks. Page numbers can be numbers, letters, lowercase roman numerals, and uppercase roman numerals. Page numbers can even start on numbers other than 1.

QUESTION 78:

Pick the FALSE statements in reference to bullets and numbering. Select TWO answers.

- A. Numbers can only start on 1
- B. TAB takes cursor down one level
- C. No toolbar buttons
- D. Shift-TAB takes cursor up one level

Answer: A, C

Explanation: The key to this type of question is to isolate the TRUE answers. In this case, B and D are true. There are toolbar buttons for bullets and numbering and numbers can start on numbers other than 1.

QUESTION 79:

Kyle is working on a ten-page document that is part of a larger document. His ten pages will be pages 21 through 30 in the larger document. What can he do to make sure the page numbers are proper when he is in the Page Number Format dialog box?

- A. Key 21 into the Start at field
- B. Key 30 into the Start at field
- C. Key 21 into the Begin page field
- D. Key 21 into the Number field

Answer: A

Explanation: To insert page numbers starting on a page other than 1, click Insert, Page Numbers on the menu bar. Select the Format button. Key the starting page number into the Start at field of the Page Number Format dialog box.

QUESTION 80:

Select the incorrect methods of inserting WordArt into a document. Select TWO answers.

- A. Formatting toolbar button
- B. Drawing toolbar button
- C. Insert, WordArt on the menu bar
- D. Insert, Picture, WordArt on menu

Answer: A, C

Explanation: Although selecting Insert, Picture, WordArt can be used to insert WordArt, the Drawing toolbar button is much easier.

QUESTION 81:

What is the correct menu bar sequence to apply an AutoFormat to an existing table?

- A. Table, AutoFormat
- B. Table, Table AutoFormat
- C. Format, AutoFormat
- D. Format, Table AutoFormat

Answer: B

Explanation: Answer A looks tempting but the correct sequence is Table, Table AutoFormat on the menu bar. Table Classic 1 and Table Classic 2 are examples of table auto formats.

QUESTION 82:

Pick the FALSE statements in reference to saving a Word document. Select all that apply.

- A. 1st time saves require Save As dialog box
- B. Filenames can contain * and ? characters
- C. Spaces cannot be used
- D. Save As accessed from File menu

Answer: B, C

Explanation: Spaces can be used in a filename and saving a document for the first time requires the use of the Save As dialog box. Asterisks and question marks can never be used in a filename. These are wildcard characters.
